

Teen Science Cafe

HOW TO GROW A BRAIN TUMOR

with Katie Grausam, PhD
Assistant Scientist, Sanford Research

Imagine trying to remove a tangled knot from a web without breaking the web itself. That's the challenge scientists face with brain tumors. Dr. Grausam shows how researchers build models of brain tumors to uncover how these cancers survive, spread, and interact with the brain, helping scientists develop better treatments.

November 3rd, 2026
5:30-7:00pm
Open to 7-12th graders
Sanford Research

 SIGN UP

<https://bit.ly/3UeiD88>

